

DEBATE

1A

The motto of the European Union is:
“Equal in Diversity”

You agree with this sentence.

Give some examples in support of your thesis by showing how the motto is really respected in the European Union.

DEBATE

1B

The motto of the European Union is:
“Equal in Diversity”.

You disagree with this sentence.

Give some examples in support of your thesis by showing how in the European Union we are still far from this ideal.

DEBATE

2A

The idea of creating a confederation of states in Europe was born by the will of a group of intellectuals, such as Altiero Spinelli. In the Ventotene Manifesto these intellectuals propose the creation of a confederal state to give stability to the European continent.

You agree with this thought.

Give some examples in support of your thesis by demonstrating how the goal of the Ventotene group has really been realised.

DEBATE

2B The idea of creating a confederation of states was born by the will of a group of intellectuals, such as Altiero Spinelli, during the Second World War. In the Ventotene Manifesto these intellectuals propose the creation of a confederal state to give stability to the European continent.

You disagree with this thought.

Give some examples in support of your thesis by showing how the objective of the Ventotene group was to fail, in fact even today Europe is crossed by tensions and problems.

DEBATE

3A

Turkey has been asking to join the European Union for several years.

You agree on the entry of this country into the European Union.

Explain your position by highlighting the reasons (political, cultural or social) that make it possible for the country to enter the EU.

DEBATE

3B

Turkey has been asking to join the European Union for several years.

You disagree on the entry of this country into the European Union.

Explain your position by highlighting the reasons that make it impossible for the country to enter the EU in today's state.

DEBATE

4A

Every 5 years European citizens are called to vote for the European Parliament.

You think voting is a fundamental right.

Explain your position by highlighting why you need to participate in this type of election.

DEBATE

4B

Every 5 years European citizens are called to vote for the European Parliament.

You think voting is a fundamental right. However, you consider the European Union too far from the citizens.

Explain your position by highlighting why it is not so necessary to participate in this type of election.

DEBATE

5A

The European Union has established that it wants to reduce greenhouse gases by at least 55% by 2030.

You think it's a fundamental and necessary goal to try to find a solution to the Climate change.

Explain your position by highlighting what has been done over the years and what needs to be done in the coming year to achieve this ambitious goal.

DEBATE

5B

The European Union has established that it wants to reduce greenhouse gases by at least 55% By 2030.

You believe that it is a fundamental and necessary unattainable objective to try to find a solution to climate change.

Explain your position by highlighting what are the elements that hinder the achievement of that goal.

DEBATE

6A

Article 2 of the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union states that “No one can be sentenced to the death penalty, nor executed”.

You agree with this position, and with the policy that the European Union has pursued so far.

Explain your position by highlighting what actions the European Union has taken to combat the practice of the death penalty still present in many states.

DEBATE

6B

Article 2 of the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union establishes that “No one can be sentenced to the death penalty, nor executed”.

You disagree with Article 2 of Charter.

Explain your position by highlighting why you think the death penalty is still useful. To demonstrate this position, bring data to support your thinking.

DEBATE

7A

Article 21 of the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union states that “any form of discrimination is prohibited”.

You agree with this position and with the policy that the European Union has pursued so far on the subject of combatting discrimination.

Explain your position by highlighting what actions the European Union has taken to combat attitudes of discrimination.

DEBATE

7B

Article 21 of the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union states that “any form of discrimination is prohibited”.

You disagree with this position and with the policy that the European Union has carried out so far on the subject of combatting discrimination.

Explain your position by highlighting how the actions put in place by the European Union are still limited.

DEBATE

8A

DEBATE

8B

DEBATE

9A

DEBATE

9B

